PRIVACY STATEMENT

Path Transit is collecting personal information through an application process to enable it to select and recruit staff. Path Transit, its advisors and any persons engaged by them to assist in the selection and recruitment, may use and disclose your information for selection and recruitment purposes. This may include contacting referees nominated by you. Please note that in the event that your application with Path Transit is successful, the personal information that Path Transit holds about you which relates to your selection, recruitment and employment will become an employee record under the Privacy Act (1988). This means that Path Transit will generally be exempt from the requirements of the Privacy Act in respect of that information. Other statutory obligations may apply.

Please complete this CHECKLIST:

- I have answered ALL questions, signed and dated my application.
- A copy of my driving licence is attached (Both Sides)
- I understand you will not process my application if it is incomplete
- I understand a bus driver must be able to follow instructions correctly and you will assess me on how well I completed this Application

As an employer, Path Transit has a duty of care to ensure its driving staff are sufficiently competent in written and spoken English to fully comprehend safety instructions and procedures, including the ability to understand and clearly respond to instructions communicated via the two-way radio installed in the bus.

RESPONSE TO YOUR APPLICATION

All applications received are assessed for completeness.

Applications that are incomplete or do not include a copy of your driving licence are rejected.

Acceptable applications are entered onto our database for consideration when vacancies occur.

Owing to the nature of our industry the timing of vacancies is very unpredictable, therefore we like to keep all valid applications on file for future reference and we will only contact you when we have a vacancy we believe you may be suitable to fill.

Drivers with previous bus driving experience and good performance records are given priority.

Holders of HR, HC or MC licences are given priority

Holders of MR licence are acceptable on condition they upgrade to HR within 12 months.

Holders of a C or LR licence will need to upgrade to HR and reapply

Holders of the permit to drive a passenger bus (F Extension) are given priority

Suitable applicants will be contacted when vacancies occur, and will be required to undergo an assessment of Road Rules knowledge, arithmetic and language skills, a practical driving assessment in a bus with our driving instructor, a formal interview and a company medical.

Our decision will be based on an overall assessment of all the information provided, including your personal presentation, as compared with that provided by other applicants for the position.

Successful applicants will be invited onto a paid 3 week full-time training course and employment as a bus driver is subject to your passing this course.

Note: It is Path Transit's policy not to enter into discussions on the details of its employment decisions nor to give feedback on the reasons for unsuccessful applications.
